Profile

Full stack engineer with experience building and leading business-critical web platforms across banking, SaaS, AdTech, recruiting, and education industries. Specialized in JavaScript/TypeScript ecosystems with strong expertise in React, Next.js, Node.js, and AWS serverless architectures.

Experience

Senior Full Stack Developer, Comafi 🔗

03/2022 – Present

Develop and maintain a business-critical financial platform used by 150+ banking employees and 1,500+ enterprise clients to manage document discounting operations involving checks, invoices, and promissory notes.

The platform processes hundreds of daily financial operations representing millions of dollars in transactions and integrates directly with Comafi's enterprise banking ecosystem.

- Refactored a legacy frontend architecture by simplifying state management, modularizing large components, centralizing reusable UI patterns, and improving error handling and testing strategies.
- Led migration of 130k+ lines of code from Create React App to Next.js, reducing deployment times by 50% and improving application performance scores by 35%.
- Led implementation of one of the bank's first microfrontend integrations within the enterprise banking platform (EBE), coordinating across architecture, backend, and product teams.

Stack: Next.js, React, TypeScript, Node.js, AWS (Lambda, API Gateway, DynamoDB, S3, Cognito, CDK, CloudFormation), GitHub Actions, Jest, Cypress
